

I fully support this proposed change to the Amateur Radio service. I believe it is important to keep Morse Code testing for the Extra Class license. Also, as the difference between Technician and General licensees are only in the addition of some HF frequencies, I believe that the upgrade of Technician to General makes very good sense.

Phil Salas - AD5X